Peace House
Contact: Jessica Wall
(435) 658-4739 x.104, jessica@peacehouse.org
Peace House is seeking experienced childcare facilitators to assist with childcare for victims of domestic violence. This is a highly rewarding job where you have the ability to make a difference in a family's life. Child care is needed for a maximum of 2 hours and days/times are flexible.

Salt Lake City Corporation
Contact: Savannah Wake
(801) 535-6202 or savannah.wake@slcgov.com
Utah is home to a number of historic trails which pass through our exquisite natural wild lands. These trails are in need of consistent maintenance to keep them accessible to the public. Volunteers are needed to help dig, chop, haul, and prune in a general effort to improve the trails.

Living Planet Aquarium
Contact: Melissa Bowers (801) 355-3474 x.212

Join The Living Planet Aquarium at the Utah Lake State Park on August 11th or August 18th for a nature area restoration project. We will be removing burnt materials from a recent fire incident. This is a wonderful family opportunity to make a difference in improving the Utah Lake ecosystem.

Playworks Salt Lake City
Contact: David Leimsieder,
(385) 212-4504 or dleimsieder@playworks.org
Volunteer with Playworks at the Sundae Run Saturday August 25th from 3-9 p.m. By volunteering you will help support an organization that promotes healthy play for all kids and reduces bullying on school playgrounds.

Jewish Family Service
Contact: Alle Salazar, (801) 746-4334
Be a walking partner to an older adult in the SL area. Help others maintain physical wellness while providing companionship in the process. Mornings are preferred in the Summer months.
