United Way of Salt Lake Young Leaders Increase Membership by Offering Career and Networking Opportunities

SALT LAKE CITY — United Way of Salt Lake Young Leaders is dedicated to creating a strong and supportive network for young professionals in Utah. It has become a great resource for people and their careers, especially during these tough economic times. As a result, membership will increase by 18 percent this year alone.

As an opportunity to learn more about the benefits of this group, the public is invited to the Young Leaders' annual event April 12. There will be food and drinks, music by the Spazmatics, and an opportunity drawing to win a four-day trip to Washington D.C., as well as Real and Jazz game packages, and other amazing prizes. Each attendee will also be automatically entered in an opportunity drawing to win two tickets to a Red Butte Summer concert of his or her choice.

WHAT: United Way of Salt Lake Young Leaders Annual Event 2013

WHEN: Friday, April 12, from 7 to 11 p.m.

WHERE: The Depot, 13 N. 400 West, Salt Lake City

TICKETS: $50 for individuals, $450 for groups of 10

The local Young Leaders group was established in 2006, and has grown to 488 members in just seven years. It includes individuals and couples 40 and under who invest $1,000 or more annually in United Way of Salt Lake. Because of their efforts, members invested more than $483,000 last year alone in United Way's mission to strengthen communities so that all children and families, regardless of their circumstances, have the same chances to succeed in school and life.

Young Leaders provides opportunities to participate in effective advocacy, community service and networking through social events. By becoming a member, young professionals will be invited to many exclusive events throughout the year, including lunching with prominent business and community leaders; organizing and participating in community service projects; and facilitating interaction with state legislators regarding crucial human service policy.
