United Way of Salt Lake Celebrates Volunteerism with its 22nd Annual Day of Caring

Salt Lake City – More than 5,500 volunteers from 125 local companies will help United Way of Salt Lake celebrate service and volunteerism during the 22nd annual Day of Caring. Volunteers will complete more than 130 one-day projects throughout Davis, Salt Lake, Summit and Tooele counties. The organization is also celebrating National Day of Service in remembrance of 9/11.

Location: The Gateway Mall (Olympic Legacy Plaza)
80 S. Rio Grande Street, Salt Lake City

Date: Thursday, September 11, 2014

Time: 7:30 a.m. – 9:00 a.m. Kick-off breakfast with live entertainment
9:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. Community service projects
11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. Stuff the Bus:* general public is invited to help fill 8,500 backpacks with school supplies for low-income kids. Public project will take place in the Grand Hall at the Gateway.

What: More than 5,500 volunteers from over 125 companies will participate in 130 service projects throughout the day. Projects range from landscaping and painting, to reading with kids, and hosting a career fair for parents and students. Volunteers reach thousands of Utah’s most vulnerable citizens, helping United Way of Salt Lake advance the education, income, and health of Utah’s neighborhoods and communities. Individuals who can’t volunteer are invited to participate by donating $10 to help support programs for at-risk kids in our community by texting SLKIDS to 50555.

United Way of Salt Lake is working to advance the education, income, and health of our neighborhoods and communities to ensure that every child succeeds, every step of the way, from cradle to career. We invite everyone to be a part of the change. You can give, you can advocate, and you can volunteer. That’s what it means to LIVE UNITED.
